

Margaret Schofield Memorial Scholarship

Margaret Schofield's life and career are recognised through this scholarship which has been established by her family in recognition of her achievements and commitment to the provision of educational opportunities for all.

The award is open to students who have completed their VCE at a government secondary school and provides assistance in funding ongoing music study at a tertiary institution.

Margaret Schofield was one of Australia's leading pianists. Her distinguished career included performances as a soloist, accompanist and actively teaching the piano for almost 60 years.

She studied music at the University of Melbourne and in London where she gave recitals for the BBC.

During the 1950s and 1960s she had regular concert tours in Australia with visiting overseas musicians, such as violinist Jean-Pierre Wallez, cellist Edmund Kurtz and soprano Elisabeth Schwarzkopf.

In 1966 she was appointed Chief Study Teacher at the University of Melbourne Conservatorium. She lectured in accompanying and piano at the Melba Conservatorium, examined for the Australian Music Examinations Board and adjudicated at many eisteddfods and competitions.

In 1988 Margaret Schofield was awarded the OAM for her services to music and to the community. She continued to teach and play until almost 80 years of age.

The scholarship will be awarded annually under the following conditions:

1. The scholarship will be awarded to a Year 12 student who has completed the Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE) including Music: Solo performance Units 3 and 4 at a government secondary school within the state of Victoria, and is intending to pursue further studies in music performance at an approved tertiary institution in Australia.

2. The student must have lived in Victoria during the year that the scholarship is advertised.
3. The scholarship is open to students of any musical instrument as a solo performer.
4. Each government school is able to submit more than one application if there is more than one potential candidate at the school.
5. The scholarship shall carry a prize of $3000 per year. The amount will be reviewed every three years and increased as necessary according to the rate of inflation at the time.
6. The scholarships are tenable for one year, and will be used to support the recipient's ongoing music education and training. The award will usually be paid directly to the tertiary educational institution at which the student is enrolled.
7. The selection panel will include representatives of the scholarship trustees, the Victorian Curriculum and Assessment Authority (VCAA) and the Department of Education and Training.
8. Applicants must complete the Margaret Schofield Music Scholarship application form to be published annually in the VCAA Bulletin. Applicants may be required to attend an audition. As part of the selection process, the trustees may contact the applicant's school and/or nominated instrumental music teacher/s.
9. The recipient of the award will be required to forward an interim report and a final report to the scholarship trustees. The tertiary institution where the student is enrolled will also be required to submit an interim report and a final report. The format of the reports will be advised by the trustees.
9. The trustees may cancel the scholarship if satisfied that the conditions of the award and the purpose of the funds have not been complied with.
10. The conditions governing the award of the scholarship may be altered from time to time as the trustees think appropriate.
