LEGAL STUDIES
Written examination

Tuesday 12 November 2013
Reading time: 3.00 pm to 3.15 pm (15 minutes)
Writing time: 3.15 pm to 5.15 pm (2 hours)

QUESTION AND ANSWER BOOK

Structure of book

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Number of questions</th>
<th>Number of questions to be answered</th>
<th>Number of marks</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>13</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>70</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Students are permitted to bring into the examination room: pens, pencils, highlighters, erasers, sharpeners and rulers.
- Students are NOT permitted to bring into the examination room: blank sheets of paper and/or white out liquid/tape.
- No calculator is allowed in this examination.

Materials supplied
- Additional space is available at the end of the book if you need extra paper to complete an answer.

Instructions
- Write your student number in the space provided above on this page.
- You should make use of stimulus material where it is included. However, it is not intended that this material will provide you with all the information to fully answer the question.
- All written responses must be in English.

Students are NOT permitted to bring mobile phones and/or any other unauthorised electronic devices into the examination room.

© VICTORIAN CURRICULUM AND ASSESSMENT AUTHORITY 2013
Question 1 (4 marks)
‘The court hierarchy is essential for the operation of the doctrine of precedent.’
a. Other than ensuring the operation of the doctrine of precedent, describe one reason for a court hierarchy. 2 marks

b. Outline why the Supreme Court (Court of Appeal) does not have to follow its previous decisions. 2 marks
Question 2 (3 marks)
Explain the role of the Senate in the law-making process.
Question 3 (6 marks)
a. Describe one restriction that is imposed by the Commonwealth Constitution on the law-making powers of the state parliaments. 2 marks

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

b. Identify the two types of law-making powers of the state parliaments. In your answer, provide an example of each. 4 marks
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

Question 4 (3 marks)

Sophie has a civil dispute with her neighbour. She is seeking $500,000 in damages. Sophie thinks that

- her trial will be heard in the Magistrates’ Court
- she will have a trial heard by a judge and a jury of 12 people
- she can go to the Victorian Law Reform Commission (VLRC) to seek legal advice.

Outline why each of these statements is incorrect.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Question 5 (5 marks)

a. Provide one reason why a court may need to interpret a statute. 2 marks

b. A legal critic once said, ‘Parliament cannot make laws that override decisions made by the Supreme Court of Victoria’.

Is this statement correct or incorrect? Explain your answer. 3 marks
Question 6 (4 marks)
Describe two dispute resolution methods that are used by courts.
Question 7 (4 marks)
Using one similarity and one difference, compare Australia’s constitutional approach to the protection of rights with the approach adopted by one of the following countries: Canada, New Zealand, South Africa or the United States of America.

Country used ________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Question 8 (5 marks)
‘Committal hearings are complicated and serve no useful purpose.’
Discuss the extent to which you agree or disagree with this statement.
Question 9 (5 marks)
‘Trial by jury is inefficient and outdated.’
Discuss two possible reforms to the jury system.
Question 10 (6 marks)
Evaluate the effectiveness of two methods that are used by individuals or groups to influence a change in the law.
Question 11 (7 marks)
‘The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT) is always a better option to resolve civil disputes than the courts because it is less expensive and quicker.’
Do you agree with this statement? Justify your answer.
Question 12 (8 marks)
Using one successful referendum and one High Court case, analyse the impact of referendums and the High Court’s interpretation of the Commonwealth Constitution on the division of law-making powers.
Question 13 (10 marks)
Discuss the extent to which the adversary system achieves one of the elements of an effective legal system. In your answer, compare two features of the adversary system with the inquisitorial system.

Question 13 – continued
Extra space for responses

Clearly number all responses in this space.
A script book is available from the supervisor if you need extra paper to complete your answer. Please ensure you write your student number in the space provided on the front cover of the script book. At the end of the examination, place the script book inside the front cover of this question and answer book.