Advertising is just visual pollution. Not only is it annoying, it creates false images and promotes crude and simplistic ideas and values.

Advertising does not force anyone to buy anything. It is just a way of keeping us informed about products that can make our lives more comfortable and enjoyable.

Modern advertising has evolved into a creative and sophisticated art form, and is often more entertaining than the programs or publications it helps pay for.

The point is not that advertising deceives, but that consumers are so easily misled.

Advertising promotes the thoughtless and unnecessary consumption of the world’s resources, and ultimately leads to constant dissatisfaction with one’s life.

Advertising is the price we pay for ‘free’ or affordable benefits.
MULTIPLE-CHOICE QUESTIONS

To be answered on the Answer Sheet for Multiple-Choice Questions.

You are advised to allocate 2 hours to this task.

Choose the response that is correct or that best answers the question, and shade the square on the answer sheet for multiple-choice questions according to the instructions on that sheet.

A correct answer is worth 1 mark, an incorrect answer is worth 0 marks. No marks will be given if more than one answer is shown for any question. Marks will not be deducted for incorrect answers.
