SECTION A – Individual study

Instructions for Section A

There are eight questions in Section A. Answer only two of these. Each question has three parts. Clearly number your answers in the answer book(s) provided.

The mark allocation for each question provides a guide in determining the length of your response.

All questions in Section A are worth 20 marks.

Question 1 (20 marks)

Homer, The Iliad, Book 6

translated by Robert Fagles with an introduction and notes by Bernard Knox, Penguin Classics, 1998;
translation © 1990 by Robert Fagles; used with permission of Viking Books, an imprint of Penguin Publishing Group, a division of Penguin Random House LLC; all rights reserved

When he heard that, Diomedes’ spirits lifted.
Raising his spear, the lord of the war cry drove it home, planting it deep down in the earth that feeds us all
and with winning words he called out to Glaucus,
the young captain, “Splendid—you are my friend,
my guest from the days of our grandfathers long ago!
Noble Oeneus hosted your brave Bellerophon once,
he held him there in his halls, twenty whole days,
and they gave each other handsome gifts of friendship.
My kinsman offered a gleaming sword-belt, rich red,
Bellerophon gave a cup, two-handled, solid gold—
I left it at home when I set out for Troy.
My father, Tydeus, I really don’t remember.
I was just a baby when father left me then,
that time an Achaean army went to die at Thebes.
So now I am your host and friend in the heart of Argos,
you are mine in Lycia when I visit in your country.
Come, let us keep clear of each other’s spears, even there in the thick of battle. Look,
plenty of Trojans there for me to kill,
your famous allies too, any soldier the god
will bring in range or I can run to ground.
And plenty of Argives too—kill them if you can.
But let’s trade armor. The men must know our claim:
we are sworn friends from our fathers’ days till now!”
