Question 7 (6 marks)
Explain how feedback processes used during post-production helped you refine your media product.
Agency and control in and of the media

Question 8 (4 marks)

Provide one example in which audiences exercise agency over the media in the contemporary media landscape, and explain how this example conveys the dynamic and changing relationship between the media and its audience.
Question 9 (6 marks)
Explain how the globalisation of media institutions has had an impact on the regulation of media content in Australia. In your response, refer to a specific example.
Social networks have enabled new modes of production, distribution, consumption and reception based on the sharing of commercial and user-generated content.

Describe the impact that these new modes have on the relationship between the media and its audience. In your response, refer to one or more aspects of the image above.
Question 11 (5 marks)
Describe an ethical and/or legal issue arising from media institutions harvesting and selling an individual’s personal information.
Question 1 (10 marks)
Media narratives can convey ideology through the selection and application of media codes and conventions.
Analyse how media codes and conventions convey ideology in the media narratives that you have studied this year.
Question 2 (10 marks)
The media has always been considered to have the capacity to influence, but these days the balance of power is changing and arguments about who can influence an audience and a market have become highly contested. Discuss how the change in methods of production, distribution, consumption or reception of media products has changed the extent of media influence.
