

Position Statement: NAPLAN Writing Professional Leader

The VCAA will employ and train sessional employees to mark student responses for the NAPLAN writing test, using an online marking platform. Group leaders and professional leaders must be appointed as markers before being able to become a group leader or a professional leader. Both positions require at least two years' experience as a NAPLAN marker.

A professional leader works under the direction of the Chief Assessor and works with the group leaders and markers. The role of a professional leader is to support the Chief Assessor and they are fundamental to valid and reliable marking. Professional leaders lead their teams, developing well-trained, decisive, confident and effective markers.

Training and marking

After appointment, all markers will be required to complete a combination of a training module created by the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and online workshops covering the marking software, protocols and prompt specific training on the weekend of 14/15 May 2022. Group leaders and professional leaders will be required to complete additional training specific to their roles. The marking of the NAPLAN writing tests will be home based. Marking is expected to begin on Tuesday 17 May 2022. All markers, group leaders and professional leaders are required to complete all specified training prior to the commencement of the marking operation.

Commitment

Professional leaders will commit to one of two marking shifts. Day shift for professional leaders is from 8:30am until 4pm. This is 7.5 hours in total, with a paid 15-minute break and an unpaid 30-minute break. Alternatively, the evening shift works from 3pm until 10:00pm. This is 7 hours, with a paid 15-minute break and an unpaid 30-minute break.

Profession Leader shifts
Day PL (Day) Six days a week. Monday to Friday (8.30am to 4.00pm) plus Saturdays (8.30am to 5.00pm) There is flexibility if a PL needs to take a different day off each week.
Evening PL (Eve) Six days a week. Monday to Friday (3pm to 10.00pm) plus Saturdays (8.30am to 5.00pm) There is flexibility if a PL needs to take a different day off each week and some flexibility if working at a school means a delayed start to shifts.

- It is envisaged professional leader training will be a combination of online (remote) and face-to-face sessions. More details will be available in 2022.
- Professional leaders need to be available for prompt specific group leader training on Thursday 12 May 2022 4 - 9pm. Professional leaders will also need to be available when group leader training continues during shifts on Friday 13 May 2022.
- Professional leaders will then start their shift on Monday 16 May 2022 and continue through until the completion of marking.
- If the mandatory training modules and training sessions are not completed, you will be unable to be employed as a professional leader.

Marking operation

Tuesday 17 May – until all scripts completed- expected finish on Friday 17 June 2022

All professional leaders are required to be logged into the online marking platform for the duration of each shift and to submit a timesheet each fortnight.

It is envisaged that professional leaders will work remotely in 2022 with the option to attend the Coburg marking centre on Wednesdays and the weekend.

Role and responsibilities

The position of professional leader reports directly to the Chief Assessor.

As a professional leader, you are required to:

- maintain the security and confidentiality of all assessment information and materials
