

AUSLAN

Sign Comprehension and Sign Production examination

Wednesday 31 October 2012

Reading of instructions and/or viewing:	10 minutes
Viewing and recording time:	2 hours

TASK BOOK

Structure of book

Section	Number of questions	Number of questions to be answered	Number of marks
1	1	1	25
2	1	1	25
			Total 50

- Students are permitted to bring into the examination room: pens, pencils, highlighters, erasers, sharpeners, rulers and an Auslan dictionary. Dictionaries may be consulted during the reading time and also during the examination.
- Students are NOT permitted to bring into the examination room: blank sheets of paper and/or white out liquid/tape.
- No calculator is allowed in this examination.

Materials supplied

Task book of 7 pages.

The Sign Comprehension and Sign Production examination has two sections:

Section I: Watching and responding to informal signed texts

Video/DVD 1 – General instructions in Auslan. Instructions for Section I and the description of the task.

– Informal signed text resource for Section I.

Section II: Watching and responding to formal signed texts

Video/DVD 3 – Instructions for Section II and the description of the task.

– Formal signed text resource for Section II.

Instructions

Please write your student number in the space provided on the envelope and again on each of your responses.

Your responses will be recorded on videos/DVDs 2 and 4 or computer file depending on examination location.

If you complete more than one draft, number each draft in Auslan at the start of your response. When you finish, indicate which draft you wish to be considered for marking in the space provided on the labels on videos/DVDs 2 and 4 or on the A3 envelope provided.

At the end of the task

Ensure you have recorded your two responses.

Students are NOT permitted to bring mobile phones and/or any other unauthorised electronic devices into the examination room.

Instructions

1. This book contains two sections.
Section I – Watching and responding to informal signed texts
Section II – Watching and responding to formal signed texts
2. Each section has specific instructions.
Section I – page 4
Section II – page 6
3. You may take notes at any time during the two-hour examination. As a general guide, divide your time equally between the two sections.

Notes

Notes

Section I: Watching and responding to informal signed texts

Instructions for Section I

- Watch video/DVD 1 and/or read the task instructions in English which are on page 5 (opposite). You will watch an informal signed text approximately 5–7 minutes in length. The text will be played three times with a pause of 2 minutes between each playing. Note: you do not need to rewind video/DVD 1. You may take notes at any time.
- Use the information provided on video/DVD 1 to complete the task response in Auslan. Your response should be between 2 and 3 minutes in length.
- If you complete more than one draft, number each draft in Auslan at the start of your response. When you finish, indicate which draft you wish to be considered for marking in the space provided on the labels of videos/DVDs 2 and 4 or on the A3 envelope provided.
- As a general guide, do not spend more than 1 hour on Section I.

Task

You meet a friend who has attended a talk on being a volunteer at the next Deaf Games, which is being held in the city, 100 km from where you live.

Your friend explains the roles of a volunteer. Excited, you go home and try to convince your parents to allow you to volunteer with your friend at the Deaf Games.

Your response should be between 2 and 3 minutes in length.

Assessment criteria: Section IWatching and responding to informal signed texts

When judging performance in this section, the examiner(s) will take into account the extent to which the student demonstrates:

The capacity to understand and respond to general and/or specific aspects of informal signed texts

- identifying and analysing information effectively for the context, audience and purpose of task

The capacity to convey information accurately and appropriately

- comparing/contrasting/summarising/evaluating
- observation of cultural conventions

Relevance, breadth and depth of treatment of information, opinions, comment

- quality of content in relation to task(s) set
- observation of cultural/discourse conventions

Accuracy, range and appropriateness of vocabulary and grammatical structures

- accuracy of vocabulary and grammatical structures
- variety of vocabulary and grammatical structures

The capacity to extract, classify and reorganise information from a range of informal signed texts

- effective structuring and sequencing of ideas for the context, audience and purpose of task

END OF SECTION I TURN OVER

Section II: Watching and responding to formal signed texts

Instructions for Section II

- Watch video/DVD 3 and/or read the task instructions in English which are on page 7 (opposite). You will watch a formal signed text approximately 3–5 minutes in length. The text will be played three times with a pause of 2 minutes between each playing. Note: you do not need to rewind video/DVD 3. You may take notes at any time.
- Use the information provided on video/DVD 3 to complete the task response in Auslan. Your response should be between 3 and 4 minutes in length.
- If you complete more than one draft, number each draft in Auslan at the start of your response. When you finish, indicate which draft you wish to be considered for marking in the space provided on the labels of videos/DVDs 2 and 4 or on the A3 envelope provided.
- As a general guide, do not spend more than 1 hour on Section II.

Task

You visited a computer expo where you attended a lecture on the importance of computers in education.

Your school has been considering buying computers for some time.

On your return to school you give a talk at a staff meeting, hoping to get support to introduce computers at school.

Your response should be between 3 and 4 minutes in length.

Assessment criteria: Section II

Watching and responding to formal signed texts

When judging performance in this section, the examiner(s) will take into account the extent to which the student demonstrates:

The capacity to understand and respond to general and/or specific aspects of formal signed texts

- identifying and analysing information effectively for the context, audience and purpose of task

The capacity to convey information accurately and appropriately

- comparing/contrasting/summarising/evaluating
- observation of cultural/discourse conventions

Relevance, breadth and depth of treatment of information, opinions, comment

- quality of content in relation to task(s) set

Accuracy, range and appropriateness of vocabulary and grammatical structures

- accuracy of vocabulary and grammatical structures
- variety of vocabulary and grammatical structures

The capacity to extract, classify and reorganise information from a range of formal signed texts

- effective structuring and sequencing of ideas for the context, audience and purpose of task