

AUSLAN

Sign Comprehension and Sign Production examination

Wednesday 23 October 2019

Reading of instructions and/or viewing:	10 minutes
Viewing and recording time:	2 hours

TASK BOOK

Structure of book

Section	Number of questions	Number of questions to be answered	Number of marks
1	1	1	25
2	1	1	25
			Total 50

- Students are permitted to bring into the examination room: pens, pencils, highlighters, erasers, sharpeners, rulers and an Auslan dictionary. Dictionaries may be consulted during the reading time and also during the examination.
- Students are NOT permitted to bring into the examination room: blank sheets of paper and/or correction fluid/tape.
- No calculator is allowed in this examination.

Materials supplied

- Task book of 7 pages
- The Sign Comprehension and Sign Production examination has two sections.

Section 1 – Watching and responding to informal signed texts

DVD 1 – general instructions, instructions for Section 1 and the description of the task in Auslan
– informal signed text resource for Section 1 in Auslan

Section 2 – Watching and responding to formal signed texts

DVD 2 – instructions for Section 2 and the description of the task in Auslan
– formal signed text resource for Section 2 in Auslan

Instructions

- Write your student number in the space provided on the envelope and again on each of your responses.
- Your responses will be recorded on blank DVDs or on a computer file, depending on the examination location.
- If you complete more than one draft, number each draft in Auslan at the start of your response. When you finish, indicate which draft you wish to have considered for marking in the space provided on the labels on the blank DVDs or on the A3 envelope provided.

At the end of the task

- Check that you have recorded your two responses.

Students are NOT permitted to bring mobile phones and/or any other unauthorised electronic devices into the examination room.

Instructions

1. This book contains two sections:
Section 1 – Watching and responding to informal signed texts
Section 2 – Watching and responding to formal signed texts
2. Each section has specific instructions:
Section 1 – page 4
Section 2 – page 6
3. You may make notes at any time during the two-hour examination. As a general guide, divide your time equally between the two sections.

Notes

Notes

SECTION 1 – Watching and responding to informal signed textsInstructions for Section 1

- Watch DVD 1 and/or read the task instructions in English that are on page 5 (opposite). You will watch an informal signed text approximately 5–7 minutes in length. The text will be played three times with a pause of 2 minutes between each playing. Note: You do not need to rewind DVD 1. You may make notes at any time.
- Use the information provided on DVD 1 to complete the task response in Auslan. Your response should be between 2 and 3 minutes in length.
- If you complete more than one draft, number each draft in Auslan at the start of your response. When you finish, indicate which draft you wish to have considered for marking in the space provided on the labels on the blank DVDs or on the A3 envelope provided.
- As a general guide, do not spend more than one hour on Section 1.

Task

You and a friend have decided to go on a holiday together. You have recently met two travel agents who have each told you about good package deals.

Using the information provided by the two travel agents, explain to your friend which package deal you prefer.

Your response should be between 2 and 3 minutes in length.

Assessment criteriaSection 1 – Watching and responding to informal signed texts

When judging performance in this section, the examiner(s) will take into account the extent to which the student demonstrates the following:

- the capacity to understand and respond to general and/or specific aspects of informal signed texts
 - identifying and analysing information effectively for the context, audience and purpose of task
- the capacity to convey information accurately and appropriately
 - comparing/contrasting/summarising/evaluating
 - observation of cultural conventions
- relevance, breadth and depth of treatment of information, opinions, comment
 - quality of content in relation to task(s) set
 - observation of cultural/discourse conventions
- accuracy, range and appropriateness of vocabulary and grammatical structures
 - accuracy of vocabulary and grammatical structures
 - variety of vocabulary and grammatical structures
- the capacity to extract, classify and reorganise information from a range of informal signed texts
 - effective structuring and sequencing of ideas for the context, audience and purpose of task

END OF SECTION 1
TURN OVER

SECTION 2 – Watching and responding to formal signed textsInstructions for Section 2

- Watch DVD 2 and/or read the task instructions in English that are on page 7 (opposite). You will watch a formal signed text approximately 3–5 minutes in length. The text will be played three times with a pause of 2 minutes between each playing. Note: You do not need to rewind DVD 2. You may make notes at any time.
- Use the information provided on DVD 2 to complete the task response in Auslan. Your response should be between 3 and 4 minutes in length.
- If you complete more than one draft, number each draft in Auslan at the start of your response. When you finish, indicate which draft you wish to have considered for marking in the space provided on the labels on the blank DVDs or on the A3 envelope provided.
- As a general guide, do not spend more than one hour on Section 2.

Task

Your school has decided to fundraise in order to build a new hub centre for the Year 12 students. You have attended a debate about the advantages and disadvantages of using an app for fundraising and on how to use the app effectively.

Using the information learnt at the debate, present a speech to the school council, informing them about whether or not an app would be an effective fundraising tool.

Your response should be between 3 and 4 minutes in length.

Assessment criteria

Section 2 – Watching and responding to formal signed texts

When judging performance in this section, the examiner(s) will take into account the extent to which the student demonstrates the following:

- the capacity to understand and respond to general and/or specific aspects of formal signed texts
 - identifying and analysing information effectively for the context, audience and purpose of task
- the capacity to convey information accurately and appropriately
 - comparing/contrasting/summarising/evaluating
 - observation of cultural/discourse conventions
- relevance, breadth and depth of treatment of information, opinions, comment
 - quality of content in relation to task(s) set
- accuracy, range and appropriateness of vocabulary and grammatical structures
 - accuracy of vocabulary and grammatical structures
 - variety of vocabulary and grammatical structures
- the capacity to extract, classify and reorganise information from a range of formal signed texts
 - effective structuring and sequencing of ideas for the context, audience and purpose of task