

AUSLAN

Sign Comprehension and Sign Production examination

Wednesday 19 October 2022

Reading of instructions and/or viewing:	10 minutes
Viewing and recording time:	2 hours

TASK BOOK

Structure of book

Section	Number of questions	Number of questions to be answered	Number of marks
1	1	1	25
2	1	1	25
			Total 50

- Students are permitted to bring into the examination room: pens, pencils, highlighters, erasers, sharpeners, rulers and an Auslan dictionary. Dictionaries may be consulted during the reading time and also during the examination.
- Students are NOT permitted to bring into the examination room: blank sheets of paper and/or correction fluid/tape.
- No calculator is allowed in this examination.

Materials supplied

- Task book of 7 pages
- The Sign Comprehension and Sign Production examination has two sections.

Section 1 – Watching and responding to informal signed texts

- Recording 1 – general instructions, instructions for Section 1 and the description of the task in Auslan
- informal signed text resource for Section 1 in Auslan

Section 2 – Watching and responding to formal signed texts

- Recording 2 – instructions for Section 2 and the description of the task in Auslan
- formal signed text resource for Section 2 in Auslan

Instructions

- Write your student number in the space provided on the envelope and again on each of your responses.
- Your responses will be recorded on a computer file.
- If you complete more than one draft, number each draft in Auslan at the start of your response. When you finish, indicate which draft you wish to have considered for marking on the A3 envelope provided.

At the end of the task

- Check that you have recorded your two responses.

Students are NOT permitted to bring mobile phones and/or any other unauthorised electronic devices into the examination room.

Instructions

1. This book contains two sections:
Section 1 – Watching and responding to informal signed texts
Section 2 – Watching and responding to formal signed texts
2. Each section has specific instructions:
Section 1 – page 4
Section 2 – page 6
3. You may make notes at any time during the two-hour examination. As a general guide, divide your time equally between the two sections.

Notes

Notes

SECTION 1 – Watching and responding to informal signed textsInstructions for Section 1

- Watch Section 1 and/or read the task instructions in English that are on page 5 (opposite). You will watch an informal signed text of between 5 and 7 minutes in length. The text will be played three times with a pause of 2 minutes between each playing. Note: You do not need to rewind the recording. You may make notes at any time.
- Use the information provided on the recording to complete the task response in Auslan. Your response should be between 2 and 3 minutes in length.
- If you complete more than one draft, number each draft in Auslan at the start of your response. When you finish, indicate which draft you wish to have considered for marking on the A3 envelope provided.
- As a general guide, do not spend more than one hour on Section 1.

Task

A former student has visited your school and talked to your Year 12 class about the month they spent volunteering at an outdoor education camp for secondary students. You are excited by the possibility of having a similar experience and want to volunteer at the camp.

Using the information provided by the former student, try to persuade your parents to let you volunteer at the outdoor education camp by outlining the benefits and opportunities the camp provides.

Your response should be between 2 and 3 minutes in length.

Assessment criteria

Section 1 – Watching and responding to informal signed texts

When judging performance in this section, the examiner(s) will take into account the extent to which the student demonstrates the following:

- the capacity to understand and respond to general and/or specific aspects of informal signed texts
 - identifying and analysing information effectively for the context, audience and purpose of task
- the capacity to convey information accurately and appropriately
 - comparing/contrasting/summarising/evaluating
 - observation of cultural conventions
- relevance, breadth and depth of treatment of information, opinions, comment
 - quality of content in relation to task(s) set
 - observation of cultural/discourse conventions
- accuracy, range and appropriateness of vocabulary and grammatical structures
 - accuracy of vocabulary and grammatical structures
 - variety of vocabulary and grammatical structures
- the capacity to extract, classify and reorganise information from a range of informal signed texts
 - effective structuring and sequencing of ideas for the context, audience and purpose of task

END OF SECTION 1
TURN OVER

SECTION 2 – Watching and responding to formal signed textsInstructions for Section 2

- Watch Section 2 and/or read the task instructions in English that are on page 7 (opposite). You will watch a formal signed text of between 3 and 5 minutes in length. The text will be played three times with a pause of 2 minutes between each playing. Note: You do not need to rewind the recording. You may make notes at any time.
- Use the information provided on the recording to complete the task response in Auslan. Your response should be between 3 and 4 minutes in length.
- If you complete more than one draft, number each draft in Auslan at the start of your response. When you finish, indicate which draft you wish to have considered for marking on the A3 envelope provided.
- As a general guide, do not spend more than one hour on Section 2.

Task

One year ago, your school implemented a mobile phone policy that banned the use of mobile phones during school hours. A school review conducted by the principal has shown that its implementation has been successful. As a student leader of your school, you have been asked to deliver a presentation about the policy at the Year 7 Parents and Students Information Evening.

Using the information provided by the principal, present the benefits of the policy to the parents and students attending the information evening.

Your response should be between 3 and 4 minutes in length.

Assessment criteria

Section 2 – Watching and responding to formal signed texts

When judging performance in this section, the examiner(s) will take into account the extent to which the student demonstrates the following:

- the capacity to understand and respond to general and/or specific aspects of formal signed texts
 - identifying and analysing information effectively for the context, audience and purpose of task
- the capacity to convey information accurately and appropriately
 - comparing/contrasting/summarising/evaluating
 - observation of cultural/discourse conventions
- relevance, breadth and depth of treatment of information, opinions, comment
 - quality of content in relation to task(s) set
- accuracy, range and appropriateness of vocabulary and grammatical structures
 - accuracy of vocabulary and grammatical structures
 - variety of vocabulary and grammatical structures
- the capacity to extract, classify and reorganise information from a range of formal signed texts
 - effective structuring and sequencing of ideas for the context, audience and purpose of task

THIS PAGE IS BLANK