Question 2

Blue Berry Jam is a publicly listed company located 90 kilometres from Melbourne. It relies on fresh farm produce to supply its fruit and employs people from the local area. The business started selling its jam to retailers in Melbourne, but has quickly expanded its market overseas to Hong Kong and Indonesia. It has a strong reputation for reliability, nutritional value and support for the environment.

However, the CEO has identified the following areas of concern for future growth.

- Falling reputation if ethical and social responsibility management is not maintained. Local residents are complaining that a new plant will become an environmental nightmare. The residents are particularly worried about Blue Berry Jam using valuable land resources. They are also concerned about more waste material polluting the nearby rivers.
- Shareholders are complaining about the cost of the new plant necessary for the extra production.
- Low price imports that may reduce Blue Berry Jam’s sales and force it to close.
