

VCE Business Management 2023–2027

Written examination – End of year

Examination specifications

Overall conditions

The examination will be sat at a time and date to be set annually by the Victorian Curriculum and Assessment Authority (VCAA). VCAA examination rules will apply.

There will be 15 minutes of reading time and 2 hours of writing time.

The examination will be assessed by a panel appointed by the VCAA.

The examination will contribute 50 per cent to the study score.

Content

The VCE Business Management Study Design 2023–2027 is the document for the development of the examination. All outcomes in Units 3 and 4 will be examined.

All of the key knowledge and key skills that underpin the outcomes in Units 3 and 4 are examinable.

Format

The examination will be in the form of a question and answer book.

The examination will consist of two sections.

Section A will consist of short-answer and extended-answer questions, including questions with multiple parts. Section A will be worth either 40 or 50 marks.

Section B will consist of short-answer and extended-answer questions, including questions with multiple parts. Questions will be based on a case study. Section B will be worth either 25 or 35 marks.

One extended-answer question, worth 10 marks, may be in either Section A or Section B and will not have multiple parts.

The number of questions in both sections may vary from year to year.

The examination may include questions that refer to stimulus material, including scenarios.

All questions will be compulsory. The total marks for the examination will be 75.

Answers are to be recorded in the spaces provided in the question and answer book.

Advice

During the 2023–2027 accreditation period for VCE Business Management, examinations will be prepared according to the examination specifications above. Each examination will conform to these specifications and will test a representative sample of the key knowledge and key skills from all outcomes in Units 3 and 4.

Examination questions may relate to one or more areas of study. The weighting of examination questions will reflect approximately the weighting of the outcomes in the study design.

Students should use command/task words, other instructional information within questions and corresponding mark allocations to guide their responses.

A separate document containing sample questions has been published on the VCE Business Management 'Examination specifications, past examinations and examination reports' page on the VCAA website.

The sample questions provide an indication of the types of questions teachers and students can expect until the current accreditation period is over.

The VCAA does not provide answers to sample questions.
