

VCE Food Studies 2023–2027

Written examination – End of year

Examination specifications

Overall conditions

The examination will be sat at a time and date to be set annually by the Victorian Curriculum and Assessment Authority (VCAA). VCAA examination rules will apply.

There will be 15 minutes of reading time and 1 hour and 30 minutes of writing time.

The examination will be assessed by a panel appointed by the VCAA.

The examination will contribute 40 per cent to the study score.

Content

The VCE Food Studies Study Design 2023–2027 is the document for the development of the examination. All outcomes in Units 3 and 4 will be examined.

All of the key knowledge and key skills that underpin the outcomes in Units 3 and 4 and the ‘Cross-study specifications’ found on pages 9–12 of the study design are examinable.

Students will not be required to demonstrate practical food skills in the examination; however, the underpinning key knowledge and key skills from practical components of the study design are examinable.

Format

The examination will be in the form of a question and answer book.

The examination will consist of two sections.

Section A will consist of 20 multiple-choice questions worth 1 mark each and will be worth a total of 20 marks.

Section B will consist of short-answer and extended-answer questions, including questions with multiple parts. One extended-answer question will be worth 10 marks and will not have multiple parts. Section B will be worth a total of 70 marks.

The examination may include questions that refer to stimulus material, including scenarios, statistical data, case studies, records of practical activities, articles, photographs, diagrams and quotations.

All questions will be compulsory. The total marks for the examination will be 90.

Answers to Section A are to be recorded on the answer sheet provided for multiple-choice questions.

Answers to Section B are to be recorded in the spaces provided in the question and answer book.

Approved materials and equipment

Pens, pencils, highlighters, erasers, sharpeners and rulers

Advice

During the 2023–2027 accreditation period for VCE Food Studies, examinations will be prepared according to the examination specifications above. Each examination will conform to these specifications and will test a representative sample of the key knowledge and key skills from all outcomes in Units 3 and 4.

Examination questions may relate to one or more areas of study. The weighting of examination questions will reflect approximately the weighting of the outcomes in the study design.

Students should use command/task words, other instructional information within questions and corresponding mark allocations to guide their responses.

A separate document containing sample questions has been published on the VCE Food Studies ‘Examination specifications, past examinations and examination reports’ page on the VCAA website.

The sample questions provide an indication of the types of questions teachers and students can expect until the current accreditation period is over.

Answers to multiple-choice questions are provided on page 14 of the sample questions document.

Answers to other questions are not provided.
