

Sharing stories

When your group has viewed your chosen clip, answer the following questions. If there is a difference of opinion over how to answer a question, the group must come to an agreement about how to phrase an answer to reflect all members views.

Questions

- 1 Who is the storyteller?
- 2 Where and when does the story take place?
- 3 Briefly outline the content of the story.
- 4 What message does the storyteller want to get across to the audience?
- 5 What sorts of values are expressed by the storyteller (eg responsibility, respect, compassion, honesty)?
- 6 What problem/s did the storyteller face and how were they overcome? Go beyond the external problems and also consider any problem the storyteller might have experienced internally.
- 7 What does the choice of images, content details, special effects and music tell you about the storyteller's feelings?
- 8 How did you feel during the story?
- 9 Was there anything that surprised you about the story?

What else would you like to know about the storyteller or to ask him or her?
